

In this day and age there are many opinions of how things will work out in the end times. Some believe the end times are near, some believe we are in the end times, others believe the end times are a ways away. No one has absolutes of how things will go in the end times, only God knows the absolutes.

While the importance of end times is recognized, there are other things we should be focused on.

In Matthew 6:34, Jesus commands us not to worry about tomorrow, but to be focused on today. We also learn also that each day has enough concerns of it's own. We can look forward to end times and the things that take place, but we need be careful to lose track of the things we are to be doing today.

In Matthew 22:37-39, we are commanded to love the Lord you God with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your mind. We are then commanded to love our neighbor as our self.

In Galatians 5:13, we are challenged to serve one another in love.

As stated, the things of the end times are important, but our focus should be on the things God calls us to do while we are here. Love the Lord, Love Others and Serve Others. Being dedicated to these things will honor God, Honor those around us and have the greatest impact. Take some today to commit to doing what God has called us to do. Enjoy the things of the end times, but don't get stuck in them and miss out on the many blessings of being focused on today.

August 23, 2015

You Asked For It

What will happen in the end?

Pastor Rick Rufenacht

Do Business Until Jesus Comes.

Luke 19:11-17

Don't Get Sidetracked.

Acts 1:4-8

Irrefutable Truths - see back of Family Facts

Faithful in the Meantime

2 Peter 3:3-18