

But this thing I did command them: Listen to and obey My voice, and I will be your God and you will be My people; and walk in the whole way that I command you, that it may be well with you (Jeremiah 7:23).

Please reread the above passage slowly. Think about each part for a few moments.

Today's message was focused on being people of God. Would you say your life lines up with being a person of God?

If you examine your life and realize there is room for growth in this area, take the time to rearrange your schedule to allow for this needed growth.

Being a people of God is an awesome privilege and a great responsibility that is covered by the love and grace of Jesus Christ.

Being a people of God requires us to work at building a deeper relationship with Him and allowing Him to guide and direct us.

As we move forward, we realize that God has great things He wants to accomplish through us, His people.

June 12, 2016
Doug Joseph

Sermon Notes