

Read Psalm 139:13-16

January 15, 2017
Sanctity of Life

You made all the delicate, inner parts of my body, and knit them together in my mother's womb. Thank you for making me so wonderfully complex! It is amazing to think about.

Notes

Your workmanship is marvelous-and how well I know it. You were there while I was being formed in utter seclusion!

You saw me before I was born and scheduled each day of my life before I began to breathe. Every day was recorded in your book. (The Book)

God knows every life before birth and after! What does this say to those people who believe life can be ended at the whim of humans? What should be our attitude towards God who has so fearfully and wonderfully made us?

The world too often places great value on the outward appearance of people. We, as Christians, know this is the wrong attitude to accept. Our acceptance of all life as special and a gift from God must rule our lives. How can we learn this for ourselves and teach it to our children in a meaningful way?