

Do you have a difficult time letting go of your money? Why?

What is your biggest hindrance?

2 Corinthians 9:10 says, "Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver."

Is it a question of who can give or share the most? Why or why not?

A giving attitude is more important than the amount given. The person who can give only a small amount should not be embarrassed. God is concerned about how a person gives from his or her resources. God himself is a cheerful giver.

Consider all that he has done for us. When we struggle letting go of our money, it may reflect ungratefulness toward God.

A thought to consider, "What would happen if tomorrow all we had was what we thanked God for today? It is a sobering thought for all of us.

So, why does God want us to be a cheerful giver? How is it a matter of the heart?
